

Travel

Oh! I love to travel,

On ship across the sea.

Or alofted by an aeroplane,

With many marvellous sights to see.

I pack my t-shirts and jeans

In a back pack or suitcase.

Did I take my passport and tickets?

I wondered on my ways

Wow! The fragrance of the air

In the hall of maple trees.

I am surrounded by the nature

And squirrels are running beside me

A five star hotel is what I would live in

And shop for everyone I know

Sight-seeing would be so much fun

And click selfies everywhere I go

Oh! I love to travel

And admire every new person I meet
Who would spend his life in a tiny part?
Of the enormous world still not completely seen

My Favourite Cartoon

I still remember those lovely days,
When I watched the Tom and Jerry tales.
I liked watching them play and have fun,
with Tom chasing Jerry with a forceful run.
How can I forget their nasty fight,
which went on and on in their house day and night!
What to say about that tiny brown mouse,
who made Tom run behind him the whole house.
He looked very innocent and kind at heart,
But was quite intelligent and eminently smart.
Still, no one could emulate Tom's smartness,
As he used to work very hard, even in the darkness.
Once both of them worked together,
And from then they became companions forever!

That's the reason I watch them till date,

And will continue watching them as they my favourites!

My Favourite Cartoon

When I'm lonely,
His gags give me company.
With the three little enemies,
Oggy, shares his house with harmony.

The slobby little roaches,
Who always plays a prank.
Oh! My poor little Oggy,
Who always misses their clank.

Jack his saviour,
Helps him when in need.
But his arrogance,
Messes up his deeds.
He's always bitten by Bob,
The brown hair doggie.
So, please be aware
Of my favourite cartoon Oggy !!
