

Travel

Oh! I love to travel,

On ship across the sea.

Or alofted by an aeroplane,

With many marvellous sights to see.

I pack my t-shirts and jeans

In a back pack or suitcase.

Did I take my passport and tickets?

I wondered on my ways

Wow! The fragrance of the air

In the hall of maple trees.

I am surrounded by the nature

And squirrels are running beside me

A five star hotel is what I would live in

And shop for everyone I know

Sight-seeing would be so much fun

And click selfies everywhere I go

Oh! I love to travel

And admire every new person I meet

Who would spend his life in a tiny part?

Of the enormous world still not completely seen
