

My City

It is a city that never sleeps,

It is a city that is full of dreams...

It is a city that welcomes dumb and smart,

It is a city that is close to my heart...

It is a city full of memories to cherish,

It is a city where your future will flourish...

It is a city where fear does not exist,

It is a city Bollywood stars cannot resist...

It is a city that runs on fast and local trains,

It is a city famous for its restaurant chains...

It is a city known for its cricket and flooding,

It is a city no less than New York or Beijing...

It is a city famous for its fashion and style,

It is a city that keeps running whether you cry or smile...

Travel to the east or travel to the west,

Proud to say my city "Mumbai" is the best!!
